

michael dulin

Last Name pronunciation: Doo-lin. Rhymes with foolin'

Piano Style: A world class pianist and keyboardist, Dulin's unique combination of musical styles - smooth jazz, new age, and classical - has given rise to his highly personal musical style, and is responsible for his wide appeal to international audiences.

Short Bio: Critic Kathy Parsons has called Michael Dulin "...one of the most versatile musicians I have ever known." Classically trained at the famed Juilliard School in New York, Dulin balances a busy career as a performer, producer/arranger, and composer of original music for radio, television, film, and theatre. He also continues to enjoy popularity as a session musician, and has toured as keyboardist with the legendary Temptations.

Dulin has performed as a solo pianist throughout the U.S., including an appearance at New York's Carnegie Hall. His international performances include Warsaw, Poland, and performances on Swedish national television. Dulin is a full time musician, head of Equity Digital, his own recording label, and is a managing partner of PSI, a digital recording facility in Birmingham, Alabama.

The One I Waited For, Michael's debut piano solo CD, was the NAR #1 CD for three months in a row. Atmospheres also led the charts in 2004, and won Best Piano Album honors in 2004's Lifestyle Music Awards. Dulin's classical CD, Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Debussy, won the 2nd Annual International Audio-Video Competition in New York, and Timeless, Michael's take on favorite classical melodies, won the Lifestyle Music Award for 2005's Best Neo-Classical album. Follow the River became Michael's 3rd original album in a row to top the New Age radio play charts. It has also elicited rave reviews and 2009 Grammy consideration.
