Pianist Michael Dulin calls Follow the River a collection of musical snapshots of his own journey following the river of life. Each piece is truly like a photograph, full of characters, textures, and colors. A fine composer and performer, Dulin shares with us 13 songs that are each interesting and varied. His classical training is evident on “Farewell,” while a hint of jazz shines though on “Siren Song.” Overall, Dulin’s style sounds deliciously Americana—warm, honest, folksy, and full of the joy in simple things. – Reviewed by New Age Retailer
